

「Fine art」

Fine Art is the making and study of visual art. It educates and prepares students to become artists and to follow other practices that are aligned to the making of art. Historically, fine art encompassed painting, sculpture, drawing and printmaking. It represents all aspects of the human experience in a variety of ways, using different methods.

Art Foundation Specialist Pathway

Art Foundation alumni who specialised in Fine Art

"My ambition is that I will be able to create similar opportunities for the next generation of artists in my country. I believe that gaining experience in different circumstances, making worldwide connections, will lead to a broader, more open mind."

Chiemi Nobata from Japan, progressed to study Fine Art at Arts University Bournemouth

Siti Eisyah Binti Mat Shah from Malaysia, progressed to study Fine Art (Sculpture) at the University of the Arts, London

"I think it was crucial for me to come here to get to know how contemporary art is nowadays. This Foundation is accepted in many places in Europe, and now I'm going to Florence to study in the Fine Art Academy. Kings has given me all of what I needed to know and I am very satisfied."

Valentina Botero Estrada from Colombia, progressed to study Fine Art at the Fine Art Academy Florence. Watch a video of Valentina:

Sung Hee Kim from Korea, progressed to study Fine Art and Chelsea College of Art (UAL)

Marie-Anne Maurane Gadeau from France, progressed to study Fine Art at Goldsmiths

Rosie Anderson from the UK, progressed to study Fine Art at Leeds Arts University

Kings
Education for Life