

Art Foundation alumni
who specialised in Interior
Design

Siu Cheung Alice Lau from Hong Kong, progressed to study Interior and Spatial Design at Chelsea College of Art (UAL)

Li Linshan from China progressed to study Interior Design at UAL

Helga Alexandra Sousa Milagre from Angola, progressed to study Interior Architecture and Design at Arts University Bournemouth

Lara Al Dirani from Syria progressed to study Interior Architecture and Design at Arts University Bournemouth

Zifeng Ou from China, progressed to study Interior Architecture at the University of Brighton

Philippe De Posch from Belgium, progressed to study Interior Design at Sheffield Hallam University

Interior Design

As an Interior Designer or Architect you will work with the spaces that people use in all aspects of their lives, from private houses and social areas such as bars, restaurants, exhibition/event spaces, to places of work which could be offices, commercial buildings or factories. For this specialism, an understanding of how people use their spaces is vital.

